Kkk Numb. 1460.

The Daily Courant.

Wedneſday, December 18. 1706.

London, December 18.

Yeſterday Morning arriv'd the Mail from Holland of Friday laſt, that of the Friday before is not yet come

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated Dec. 24.

From Prince Eugene of Savoy's Camp at Veſcovato, Dec. 7.

PRince Eugene having paſs'd the Adda with a conſiderable Number of the Troops of the Allies, arriv'd here the 5th Inſtant, within 5 or 6 Leagues of the Oglio. He has halted here theſe 2 Days, as well to ſtay for ſome Troops that are coming up, as for ſettling the Winter Quarters, into which we are to be diſpos'd, between the Oglio, the Po, and the Adda, to form the Blockade of Cremona, till the Weather be fit for beſieging it in Form.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated Dec. 24.

Milan, Dec. 9. Some Reinforcements are arriv'd at Genoa for the Count de Medavi, who has reinforc'd the Garriſon of Cremona, and has order'd ſome new Works to be made for ſtrengthening the Fortifications of that Place. There are at preſent near 10000 Imperialiſts in Winter Quarters in the Territories of Parma and Piacenza.

Venice, Dec. 11. We have Advice, that the Magazine of Hay erected at Mantua for the Subſiſtance of the French Horſe, is conſum'd by Fire, and with it ſeveral Houſes; the French cannot diſcover by what Accident, or by what Hands (if done by Incendiaries as they ſuſpect) this Fire came, but are making ſtrict Inquiry about it. We have alſo Advice from ſeveral Places, that the French have quitted Guaſtalla, as alſo Zelo, Palantone Trecenta Stellata, Figarolo, and other Poſts in and about the Ferrareze.

Roveredo, Dec. 12. The 3d of December, the Imperialiſts entred the Town of Bozolo, and afterwards took Quarters in S. Martin, Rinaralo, and Gazolo, where they have laid a Bridge over the Oglio. The French have abandon'd Guaſtalla, after having ſprung 2 Mines, which ruin'd 2 Baſtions of the Place. Moſt of the Regiment of Montferat has taken Service among the Imperialiſts, and the reſt, who are French, have abandon'd Borgoforte, in which the Imperialiſts have found great ſtore of Proviſions. The Imperialiſts batter the Caſtle of Modena with Artillery, and hope to force it to ſurrender in a ſhort Time.

Caſal, Dec. 7. Our Caſtle ſurrendred Yeſterday at 9 in the Morning, after the Trenches had been open'd before it 12 Days. The Governour having caus'd a Parley to be beat, and demanded to march out with his Garriſon, Arms, Baggage, and 6 Cannon, the D. of Savoy return'd Anſwer that he was to expect no Capitulation, but to yield himſelf and Garriſon Priſoners of War; and the Governour refuſing to ſubmit to that, his Royal Highneſs gave Order for continuing to batter the Place, and ſignified to him, that he would make an Aſſault this Morning, and put all to the Sword: Whereupon the Governour determined at length to yield on the Terms preſcrib'd him, deliver'd up a Gate Yeſterday, and to Day is to march out. The Garriſon are to leave their Arms at the Gate, and be conducted whither his Royal Highneſs ſhall think fit; he has given the Officers their Baggage. 'Tis now talked, that formal Siege will be forthwith laid to Valenza, which is already block'd up.

We have very different Advices ſtill from divers Parts concerning the Peace concluded between the King of Sweden and King Auguſtus; and 'tis likely the Advices will continue to vary till King Auguſtus arrives in Saxony: But the Advices on the Part of Sweden are all of one Tenour. Letters from Stockholm of the 1ſt of this Month adviſe, that the News of the Concluſion of the ſaid Peace was receiv'd there with great Joy: That the Queen Grand-Mother immediately caus'd the Saxon Priſoners that were employ'd in repairing the Fortifications, to be diſcharg'd from that Work; gave 200 Crowns among them, and treats the Officers with great Goodneſs and Generoſity. The King of Sweden wrote the following Letter, to order the Peace to be proclaim'd at Stockholm, &c.

CHARLES by the Grace of God, &c. We would not omit to let you know, that after ſome Conferences held between Perſons authoriz'd on our Part, and on that of the Elector of Saxony, We have concluded an amicable Accommodation with King Auguſtus (agreeable to the Ends we had propos'd, and to our intire Satisfaction) which Treaty has been ratified and exchang'd ſome Days. But on this Occaſion we would not accept the Offices proffer'd us by foreign Potentates; as well becauſe we were not ſure of the Succeſs, as becauſe thoſe that were empower'd by the Elector of Saxony to treat, deſir'd earneſtly, and oblig'd themſelves by Oath, as did alſo thoſe authoriz'd on our Part, to keep the Negociation ſecret, that King Auguſtus might have Time and Opportunity to ſecure himſelf againſt the Party he abandons. And tho' there has ſince been an Action in great Poland, between our Troops and thoſe of the Elector of Saxony's Party, which might have occaſion'd ſome Alteration in the Treaty, and make it look'd upon to be in ſome Meaſure broken; yet Excuſes having been offer'd for that Action on the Part of King Auguſtus, and Aſſurance given at the ſame Time of his ſtedfaſt Inclination to abide by the Peace granted him, We have ſuffer'd our ſelves to be prevail'd upon to make known publickly our good Intentions and Love of Peace; the rather, becauſe we hope to receive reaſonable Satisfaction for what has paſs'd during the Suſpenſion of Arms. Wherefore we command you to publiſh theſe Preſents in all Places where it may be requiſite, &c. We recommend you to the divine Protection.

Alt-Ranſtand, Nov. 30. Sign'd,
O. S. 1706. CHARLES.

From the Paris Letter, dated Dec. 20.

Paris, Dec. 20. 'Tis reported as certain, that 14 Battallions and 4 Regiments of Horſe and Dragoons of the Army that ſerv'd in Italy, are order'd to march from Provence and Dauphine to Rouſſillon, to joyn 10 Battallions that are there already, and to enter Catalonia. Upon Advice that the Ship call'd the Eagle is arriv'd at the Groyne from the Weſt Indies, laden with Silver and Merchandize to a great Value, a Ship of 50 Guns is order'd thither from Breſt, to convoy her to one of our Ports. They write from Bourdeaux, that the Garonne is full of Dutch Ships that are come for Wine, Brandy, &c. M. Amelot de la Houſſaye, ſo well known by his many Writings, died ſome Days ago: He had lately made new Notes for a 2d Edition of Cardinal d'Oſſat's Letters.

Hague, Decemb. 24. Yeſterday the Miniſter of Sweden preſented to the Preſident for the Week of the Council of State, a Letter from King Staniſlaus to the States General: It was read in the Aſſembly, and imported that the Inteſtine War which had ſo long afflicted the Republick of Poland being brought to an End by the Peace concluded with King Auguſtus, he judg'd it proper not to defer any longer to notify to the States his indiſputable Acceſſion to the Crown of Poland, and to aſſure them of his Friendſhip. The 22d Inſtant the Court of Juſtice of Holland gave Judgment

Judgment in favour of the Queen of England, in the Dispute about the Jewels bought with Money issued out of the Royal Exchequer and left by King William, and claim'd by the Prince of Friseland as his Heir. The Recruits for Portugal and Spain are Embark'd: And we hear a very considerable Reinforcement of Troops will in a few Weeks be sent from hence and from England, to push on the War in those Parts with the utmost Vigour; 'tis said the States are to send six Regiments for their Contingent of that Reinforcment. P. S. Letters that are just come in from Saxony, advise, that King Augustus is arriv'd at Leipsick; and that having had an Interview with the King of Sweden and King Stanislaus, they Embrac'd each other, Din'd together, and by all that pass'd between them seem to be most Cordial Friends. Letters from Paris, say Mint-bills are at 70 per Cent. Discount. Some Advices from Rome of the 4th of this Month, tell us the Affair of the double Election at Munster, would be decided by a Congregation of 17 Cardinals and 14 Prelates appointed to meet for that purpose the 16th.

AT the Theatre Royal in Drury-Lane, this present Wednesday, being the 18th of December, will be presented an Opera, call'd, The Island Princess, or, The Generous Portuguese. With the usual Dances, and also two Dances by the famous Monsieur du Ruel lately arriv'd.

Never Acted but thrice.

By her Majesty's Company of Comedians.

AT the Queen's Theatre in the Hay-Market, this present Wednesday, being the 18th of December, will be presented a new Tragedy, call'd, Almyna, or, The Arabian Vow. The principal Parts to be perform'd by Mr. Betterton, Mr. Wilks, Mr. Keen, Mrs. Barry, Mrs. Bracegirdle.

These Plays are Sold by J. Knapton at the Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard, and B. Lintott next Nando's Coffee-House, Temple-Bar.

AN Entertainment by Mr. CLINCH of BARNET, who imitates the Flute, Double Curtell, the Organ with 3 Voices, the Horn, Huntsman and Pack of Hounds, the Sham Doctor, the Old Woman, the Drunken Man, the Bells: All Instruments are perform'd by his natural Voice. To be seen this present Evening at 7 a Clock at the Cross-Keys Tavern next Temple-Bar. Price 1 s.

Samuel Dunklyn, Mercer, late of Covent Garden, is now Remov'd to the Golden Anchor in Leaden-Hall-street, and sells Callicos and Silks as formerly.

Whereas on Saturday the 14th of this Instant October, a plain Silver Tankard and Round handled Spoon was taken out of a Kitchin in Wamford Court near Draper's-Hall in Frogmorton-street, by a Basket-Woman that brought Meat from Market, the Tankard mark'd M. H. if the said Tankard and Spoon be offer'd to be Pawn'd or Sold you are desir'd to stop the Person and to give notice to Mr. Horne Bookseller at the Royal Exchange, and you shall have 20 s. Reward, or if bought you shall have your Money again and the said Reward.

Several fine Mares 15 Hands high, and a fine Black Stone-Horse with long Tails for a Coach, are brought to Town to be Sold at the Red-Hart-Inn in Fetter-lane.

The True Golden Snuff is now by the first Author brought to such a perfection, for its Fragrancy and Efficacy, that it far exceeds all others extant, for its giving speedy Relief in the Headach and Toothach, proceeding from Cold, in actually removing Drowsiness, Giddiness, Vapours, dulness of Hearing, noise in the Ears, dimness of Sight, or Humours in the Eyes, and in preventing Apoplexies and Falling Sickness, is to be Sold by Mr. James Dodd at Mason's Coffee-House in Bartholomew-lane behind the Royal Exchange, and from the Author at the Green Balcony in Durham-yard in the Strand, London; who, for the conveniency of those living remote, hath thought fit to dispose of it in several other Places in the City of London, and in most Cities and Eminent Towns in Great Britain, good Encouragement being allow'd to those who are willing to Sell it by Retail, the Author promising to sell it to no more than one in any City or Town, (London excepted); and whoever sends to him first may receive the benefit of it, which will be considerable, with a large Paper gratis, fit for a Frame, to be hung up in Houses or Shops. Price 1 s. a Paper, with directions. Seal'd up with his Seal being now an Elephant, and the figure of an Elephant stamp'd on the back-side of each Paper with a Latin Inscription round it, and underneath, The True Golden Snuff, to distinguish it from counterfeits now abroad under the notion of Imperial Golden, English Golden, &c.

The first and most approved Angelick Tincture for Coughs, began to be expos'd to Sale October 10. 1704. and for more than one whole Year escap'd unmolested by Counterfeits. It is a great and stupendious Medicine, having sav'd the Lives of many, doing the Cure on the Spot after a Thousand other things fail; when it is taken into the Mouth the Cough doth instantly Cease, and after a Days return no more, the Truth whereof is sufficiently evinc'd by Examples of Cures in former Advertisements. N. B. This excellent Secret is no where to be had save at, John's Coffee-house in Swithin's Ally by the Royal Exchange, and at the 7 Stars under St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street. Price 1 s. each Bottle.

The Incomparable Powder for Cleaning the Teeth which has given so great Satisfaction to most of the Nobility and Gentry in England, is now remov'd from Mr Greenwood, where it was formerly Sold, to these 2 Places, viz. Mr Middleton Bookseller the corner of St. Peter's Alley Cornhill, & at Mrs. Markham's Toyshop at the 7 Stars under St Dunstan's Church Fleetstreet, & no where else in England. It at once using makes the Teeth as White as Ivory tho' never so black or yellow, and effectually preserves them from rotting or decaying continuing them sound to exceeding Old Age, it wonderfully cures the Scurvy in the Gums, prevents Rheums or Defluxions, kills Worms at the Roots of the Teeth, and thereby hinders the Toothach, it admirably fastens loose Teeth, being a neat cleanly Medicine of a pleasant and grateful Scent.

WHereas Notice was formerly given in several Daily Courants printed in August 1705, that no Person should trust the Lady ANDERSON, Wife of Mr. BROWNLOWE SHERARD, she having Eloped from her said Husband. And Whereas since the said Advertisement, upon a Charge against the said BROWNLOWE SHERARD by his said Wife in the Court of Queen's Bench, he hath been honourably discharg'd by the said Court. And upon a Prosecution in the Consistory Court of the Lord Bishop of London; and also in the Court of Arches, by his said Wife, he hath also been honourably acquitted from the said Prosecution, and the Lady ANDERSON been admonish'd in the said Court of Arches to return to, and cohabit with her said Husband: Which she hath not thought fit to do. These are further to Forewarn all Persons not to trust her; for her said Husband will not pay any Debts contracted by her. And to the End no Person may be impos'd upon by any false Names for the future, She is a little Woman, light brown Hair, full grey Eyes, large Eyebrows, round Visage, pale Complexion, with a small Mark or Scar in the middle of her Forehead, and hath a very voluble deceitful Tongue.

Septentrionalium libi extantium notitiam, cum totius operis sex indicibus OXONIÆ E THEATRO SHELDONIANO, An. Dom. MDCCV.

If any desire to know what Opinion Learned Men have of this great Work, they may consult the Reverend Mr. W. Wotton in the defence of his Reflections upon Ancient and Modern Learning, printed at London MDCCV. p. 36, 37, 38. The Author of Chronicon Preciosum, in a Letter to a Student of the University of Oxford, London MDCCVII. The Right Honourable EZECHIEL Lord SPANHEM the King of Prussia's Embassador in the late new Edition of his great and most Learned Work Entituled, Dissertationes de præstantia et usu Numismatum, Tom. 1. p. 557, 558, Londini MDCCVI. And the Acta Eruditorum, printed at Lipsic the 1st of March, and the 1st of May MDCCVI.

This Book is to be sold by Dr. George Hickes at his House in Ormond-street near Red-Lyon-Square London, and for him by Mr Bateman Bookseller in Pater-Noster-Row London, and Mr. Edmund Bush at the Printing-House near the Theatre in Oxford.

This Day is publish'd,

A Paraphrase and Notes on the Epistle of St. Paul to the Romans, by the Author of the Paraphrase and Notes on the Epistle to the Galatians, and on the 1st and 2d Epistle to the Corinthians. All Printed and Sold by A. and J. Churchill at the Black Swan in Pater-Noster-Row.

The famous Royal Essence for the Hair of the Head, Perriwigs, &c. being the most delightfully charming Perfume in Nature, excellently beneficial to Health, and the best Perserver of Hair in the World, keeping that of Perriwigs in the Curl, and all Hair from fading or changing Colour; makes the Hair of the Head grow thick, strengthens and confirms its Roots, and infallibly keeps it from falling off, or splitting at the Ends. By its incomparable Perfume it strengthens the Brain, revives the Spirits, quickens the Memory, but never raises the Vapours in Ladies; it also scents Handkerchiefs excellently. Since it has been so exceedingly admir'd and valu'd by the Nobility and Gentry it has been basely counterfeited, therefore take Notice that the true is to be had only at Mr. Allcraft's a Toy-shop at the Blue-coat Boy against the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, at 2 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.

The famous Gout Antidote, that by Bathing only has lately cured so many Persons afflicted with the most violent Rageing Pains of the Gout and Rheumatism, restoring them to compleat and perfect Ease to a Miracle, (as will be attested at Mr. Allcraft's one of the Places of Sale) and that hath been experienced by Thousands who have been cured by it, to be the only Remedy capable to give present Relief in the utmost Extremity, or almost distracting Torturing Pains of the Gout and Rheumatism, when all other means have been used in vain: It most infallibly takes away all manner of Pain in less than half an Hours time to admiration, and not only takes off a Fit for the present, but also prevents it returning again, and most certainly keeps the Gout from the Stomach. Is Sold only at Mr. Allcraft's a Toy-shop at the Blue-Coat-Boy against the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, and at Mr. Brooke's a Stationer at the Ship near the May-Pole in the Strand at 2 s. 6 d. a Bottle with directions.

LONDON; Printed, and Sold by Sam. Buckley at the Dolphin in Little-Britain.
